AN ACT FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT AND SUPPORT OF ENGLISH SCHOOLS FOR HAWAIIAN YOUTH.

APPROVED JULY 20th, 1854.
WHEREAS, A knowledge of the English language is very important to the success of the Hawaiian people in the pursuit of wealth, and to their intellectual progress; therefore,

Be it Enacted by the King, the Nobles and Representatives of the Hawaiian Islands, in Legislative Council Assembled:

SECTION 1. The House of Representatives of the Hawaiian Islands shall, biennially, on the third week of their session, elect by ballot two persons for each election district of the Islands, who, with the School Inspector or School Inspectors of the District, shall constitute a Board of School Directors for the encouragement and support of English Schools for Hawaiian youth. The said persons being duly elected, shall hold their offices for the term of two years, or till their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified; and they shall possess the powers and perform the acts hereinafter granted and prescribed.

SECTION 2. The Boards of Directors as aforesaid, shall have power to make their own bye-laws, not in conflict with the laws of this Kingdom, regulating the time and places of their meetings, their mode of conducting their business, and the mode of filling all vacancies that may occur in their number, and to locate, establish and control such schools for the instruction of Hawaiian youth in the English language, as may receive the aid of the Government in their support, provided that in all cases, they shall keep regular and permanent records of their proceedings, and make a full report annually, through the Minister of Public Instruction to the Legislature at least one month previous to the commencement of each session.

SECTION 3. A majority of each of the said Boards of Directors, duly notified, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for business, and all questions of business shall be decided by a majority of those present.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of the several Boards of Directors, as aforesaid, and of their individual members, to use their best endeavors to impress upon the minds of the people the importance of a knowledge of the English language to their children, to induce them to provide for them as soon as possible the means of acquiring it, by contributing, according to their ability, the means of supporting English Schools of good character among them. All money or property entrusted to the Boards of Directors shall be carefully applied by them to the object aforesaid, and shall be this Act. It shall be his duty, on receiving from any Board of Directors a certificate, that a suitable school-house has been provided in their District, and that they have received from responsible parties subscriptions for the support of an English school or schools, to the amount of four hundred dollars per annum or more, to open an account with the said Board of Directors, and to draw upon the Minister of Finance for a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars per quarter for each Representative in Parliament which the District may be entitled to send, and in no case exceeding the amount which has been actually paid in by the private supporters of the school.

SECTION 6. Should the Boards of Directors of two or more adjoining election districts fail after a reasonable effort to obtain the means of supporting a separate English school for the object aforesaid in each of said districts, it shall be lawful for them to unite on such terms and for such a period as shall be mutually agreed upon by themselves in writing, for the support of at least one school for the several districts which, in that case, for the purpose of this Act, shall be regarded as one district; and it shall be lawful for said Boards of Directors to commit the immediate care and management of such school to such sub-directors, chosen from their own number, as they shall deem proper, who, when duly authorized, shall, for the time being, while said districts are thus united, be the Board with whom the Minister of Public Instruction shall correspond and co-operate, and who shall tives for 1854 shall elect by ballot the two persons elected and qualified.

SECTION 9. This Act shall take effect from and after the day of its passage.

provisions of this Act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

a law from and after the date of its passage.

Admiral Sir Charles Napier.
The following sketch of this distinguished man, who fills so important a station in the eyes of Europe may not prove uninteresting at the present time:—

"We may soon anticipate some stirring intelligence from the Baltic fleet under Admiral Napier.
The mission of the veteran commander is one of extraordinary importance, and he is doubtless fully aware of the responsibility. Sir Charles Napier has seen much service. As long ago as 1833, he volunteered to serve the cause of the Queen of Portugal against the usurpation of Don Miguel, and while in command of a little squadron of frigates and corvettes, he captured a far superior force, including two line-of-battle ships, one of which he was himself among the first to board. While hanging in the shrouds trying to get upon the deck, he was poked at by a Portuguese pikeman, and very nearly lost his life. After gaining the deck an officer rushed at him to run him through.
Sir Charles quietly parried his thrust, and very timely giving his assailant a hearty kick, sent him tumbling down the hatchway. The victory which he gained on that occasion decided the destinies of Portugal.

"It was during this war that the late Lord William Russell, hearing that Sir Charles Napier was in the vicinity of Valencia, went with a friend to see him, and soon discovered a man dressed in a very 'easy' costume, and accompanied by a marine, bearing two muskets on his shoulders. 'Well, Napier,' said he, 'what are you doing here?'

"'I'm going to take Valencia,' was the reply. 'But,' said Lord William Russell, 'Valencia is a fortified town, and in order to take it you must order trenches, make approaches, and establish batteries and breaches, which things take a great deal of time, and must be done according to rule.' 'Oh,' said Sir Charles, 'I have no time for that. I mean to take the town by letter.' He accordingly sent the Governor a letter, telling him it was much better to surrender at discretion. The Governor, who was a man of prudence, surrendered, and Valencia was handed over to the Queen.

"The next great occasion on which Sir Charles Napier took a prominent and distinguished part was the war in Syria. Here, at the head of his marines and some land troops, he stormed and captured Sidon, taking three or four thousand prisoners. Subsequently, he took an active and important part in the capture of Acre. Afterwards, going to Alexandria with a portion of his fleet, he persuaded Mehemet Ali to sign a convention which led to a peaceful evacuation of Syria by the Egyptian forces—thus saving a vast amount of human life. The result of that compromise is now manifest in the fact that the troops and ships of Egypt, instead of being engaged as formerly in hostile conflict with those of the Sultan, are now ranged beside them, and the Pacha is as well affected towards his sovereign, as any other subject in his dominions."

MENTAL EXCITEMENT.—Bad news weakens the action of the heart, oppresses the lungs, destroys the appetite, stops digestion, and partially suspends all the functions of the system. An emotion of shame flushes the face; fear blanches it; and an instant thrill electrifies a million of
